BALL PARK WRECKED IN RIOT

"Bloomer Girls" Discovered to be Men in Disguise

THROW MOBS POLICE

Several Hurt in the Mele—
Manager of the Team
Skips With the Cash—
Small Boy Caused the Trouble.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 21.—One policeman is in a hospital, two others are nursing bruises and are awaiting new uniforms and parts of the Union base ball park is a wreck today as a riot
at a Sunday base ball game when 4,000 enthusiasts discovered that a team of "bloomer" girls were really
men in disguise. The team was taken to an eastbound train under police protection. A half hour before the storm broke, the manager of the
"girls" already acquired the gate receipts and disappeared.

The team was successful here four weeks ago and it returned for a second appearance, the opposing team
being an amateur organization from Laurel, Md. The trouble started when the "girls" centerfielder, a husky
young blonde, threw a ball from deep
center to home plate, catching the runner. The spectators grew suspicious.

A moment later a small boy slipped
up behind the supposed divinity that presided at third base and gave her golden locks a vigorous pull. They came away in the form of a wig, revealing a chunky young man with an elaborate makeup ending just above
his eyebrows. The team fled through a storm of police and bricks to the shelter of the club house, where the police massed.

The crowd then stormed the "flock"
windows, demanding their money
back, venting their fire on the property. Several persons were hurt in the melee and a number of arrests
were made.

by a dog, received word today
through Health Officer Fowler that

The dog also bit several children
and many other dogs and the town
is excited.

Alleged Kidnaping of Child by Its Father At Martinsburg Saturday

(Special to the Advocate)
Martinsburg, O., July 21.—This village is astir over a sensational affair,
which resulted in the arrest, Sunday afternoon, of James Laymon of
near Chatham and Edward Burkholder, Layman's brother-in-law, on state warrants charging kidnaping
of Laymon's three-year-old child.

The alleged kidnaping occurred
Saturday night at 10 o'clock in A. C.
Tilton's store here. Witnesses say Burkholder entered the store and took the child from the arms of
Mrs. William Stratton, of Henpeck,
the mother of Laymon's dead wife
and grandmother of the child. It was said Burkholder first took the

GREEK'S SAVINGS CARRIED AWAY BY UTAH FLOOD

(Associated Press Telegram)
Price, Utah, July 21.—Sudden rains
resulting in torrents in Price canyon
have carried away railroad bridges,
houses and sections of the Midland
trail, completed last week at considerable expense and after nearly a thousand residents of this city had turned out to work on the roads.
Most of the damage was done last night.

A house occupied by a Greek was washed away, carrying with it a trunk
in which he had placed $2,200 savings.
A bridge went out, after a stage
with twenty passengers had just crossed it. Several homes in Castle Gate, near the east end of the canyon
were washed away. The damage is estimated at between $50,000 and $100,000.

BELIEVES BILL FOR CURRENCY CAN BE ENACTED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 21.—President
Wilson still is confident that currency
legislation can be enacted at the present session of congress. He told visitors at the White House today
that the delay in the currency bill has encountered was nothing more than
he had expected because of the importance of the subject and the length of time required to frame a proper measure.

MANY EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS FELT OVER SOUTHERN GERMANY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, July 21.—Besides the sharp
shocks of earthquakes throughout Wurttemberg yesterday tremors were experienced all over southern Germany extending from Strassburg by way of Frankfurt to Munich in Bavaria and as far as Zurich in Switzerland.

Many persons were thrown down in the streets and hundreds ran in terror out of their homes. At Strassburg the seismic recording instruments were out of order by the violence of the disturbance.

LOCKED OUT MEN RETURN TO WORK

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, July 21.—Construction of $40,000,000 worth of improvements
was resumed today with the return
to work of thirty thousand members of building trades union. They were locked out more than a month ago by contractors in an attempt to stop the
calling of petty strikes which frequently tied up work on large office
buildings. The unions and contractors associations have signed an agreement to arbitrate future differences.

and happy when he is neither ultimately comes out on top.

MEDIATION BOARD WILL MEET TODAY

Will Attempt to Have Railroads and Trainmen
Agree to Arbitration

HITCH IN PROCEEDINGS

Came Several Days Ago
When Roads Made Demand That Their Grievances Be Arbitrated—80,
000 Men Involved.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, July 21.—The conference of railroad managers held
their first meeting today with members of the board of mediation and conciliation who are trying to mediate in the dispute between the eastern railways and their trainmen
and conductors.

The members of this board Judge
Wm. J. Chambers, Martin A. Knapp
and G. W. W. Hanger, decided first
to hear the position of the railroads
and later to receive the reports of the employees.

W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and
A. B. Garretson, head of the Order of Railway Conductors, waited at their headquarters in a downtown
hotel. They expected an opportunity to appear before the federal board this afternoon as soon as the commissioners finished their conference with the railroad managers.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, July 21.—Judge William J. Chambers and G. W. W.
Hanger, the two members of the mediation board will meet here today to go over the differences between the railroads and their 80,
000 or more trainmen and conductors.

The task they face is of getting the parties to the controversy to agree upon steps for arbitration under the federal board's auspices.
The hitch in the proceedings
came last week when the eleventh
hour proposal of the railroad managers committee came forward with
the demand that the railroads
"grievances be arbitrated at the same time as the employees demands."

The union protests against the
injection of the railroad companies
grievances in this sudden and unexpected manner.

The federal commissioners arranged
for their first business today to meet Elisha Lee, chairman of the railroad managers conference committee, to learn the railroads' side
of the railroad dispute and efforts
will probably be made to get the roads to withdraw their demand for arbitration of their grievances until
a later date.

EXPEDITION TO ARCTIC READY TO SAIL TOMORROW

(Associated Press Telegram)
Nome, Alaska, July 21.—The gargantuan schooner, Mary Sachs, a vessel of 35 tons net register, has been purchased by Vilhjalmur Stefansson, as a third vessel of the Canadian Polar expedition which will lead into the Arctic. Loading of the Mary Sachs
was begun Friday night. It is expected that the ship will be ready to sail
tomorrow when Stefansson will join Captain Bartlett on the Karluk and Port Clarence, 38 miles north of Nome, and the entire expedition will be under way.

A gasoline boat Alaska, under command of Dr. R. M. Anderson, who has charge of the Southern party of the expedition will probably winter
on South Dolphin or Ulukuk straits,
while the Mary Sachs will establish a supply depot at the head of Prince Albert Sound. The Mary Sachs will then be used for oceanographic work
in some harbor well to the westward,
where she can be free early next summer to communicate with the outside world.

officially confirmed here that Bulgaria
has accepted the conditions laid down
by Roumania and has also agreed to the terms of peace with Serbia and Greece.

ers today of its readiness to order the cessation of hostilities immediately if
the powers can induce Serbia and Greece to take a similar course.

STEAMER IS BEACHED IN THE HUDSON

(Associated Press Telegram)
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 21.—The steamer Tremper, loaded with panic
stricken passengers was beached
on the west side of the Hudson
here today with the water pouring
through a big hole in her bottom.
The Tremper bound from New-berg to Albany, ran on a reef on Esopus Island.

The boat had settled very low before she reached the mainland after an exciting two mile race.

TRAIN STRIKES AUTO; ONE DEAD THREE INJURED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Akron, O., July 21.—Miss Mabel Ross, 24, of Akron was killed, and Bryan Rogers, son of Common Pleas
Judge S. E. Rogers, and William Joy,
both of Akron were probably fatally
injured when an automobile in which they were driving was hit by a Pennsylvania train at Bettes Corners, near Akron, just before noon.

There were four persons in the au-
to which was returning to Akron.
Paul Ward, aged seven, the fourth
member of the party, was also slightly injured. The automobile was carried for a distance of nearly 100 feet
before the train could be stopped and
the occupants were scattered in all directions.

Miss Ross was instantly killed. The other three were rushed to the hospital where it was necessary to amputate the right leg of young Rogers.
It is believed that his injuries are fatal. The Joy and Ward boys will recover.

COLUMBUS MAN STRUCK BY CAR

George Grandstaff, a Columbus man,
giving his residence as 315 Thurman
street, was struck by an Ohio Electric car Sunday evening near Hebron. He was knocked down by the car and
sustained severe gashes in the face
and forehead.

Grandstaff and a companion, boarded a car at the park earlier in the evening. They found they were on the wrong car and were allowed to alight
after leaving Hebron.

Grandstaff claims he struck a match
to get his bearings and while blinded
by the light, another car swung
around the curve and struck him before he could leave the track.

Motorman C. L. Warner did not see the men in time to bring the car to a stop. He was taken on board and the car took him back to Hebron
where Dr. O. M. Kramer dressed his injuries. He took a later car to Columbus.

Developments of Tremendous Importance to the Huerta Government It Is Predicted Will Happen Within Next Two Weeks

REPORTS RECEIVED AT WASHINGTON ARE OF A DELICATE NATURE AND CANNOT BE REVEALED

Authoritative Publication of Same Would Precipitate
the Crisis Which Dispatches Forecast — President Wilson Anxiously Awaits the Arrival of Ambassador
Wilson from Mexico City—Unable to Get Comprehensive View of the Situation.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 21.—Alarming reports of an approaching crisis in Mexico have been received here by high government officials. It was authoritatively stated today upon unimpeach-
able authority that the developments
of the coming two weeks are regarded
as fraught with tremendous importance to the Huerta government.

So delicate is the information they contain that the advices became known today only with the stipulation
that it was unofficial and that it should not be represented as being the view of an official of the United States government.

Authoritative publication of the nature of the advices, it was said,
probably would precipitate the very crisis the dispatches forecast. The means by which the predicted events
were to be brought to pass or what was to follow were not hinted at in
the reports which so far have found
no reflection in military or naval preparations by the United States.

Meanwhile the administration is marking time on the Mexican problem, pending the arrival of Ambassador Wilson from Mexico City, which is expected by Thursday or Friday.
President Wilson finds himself in the same state of doubt as to actual conditions in the rebellion-torn republic
as he did when in the hope of getting
at the facts he summoned the American ambassador to the capital.

He realizes that even the Americans
scattered throughout Mexico individually are unable to get a comprehensive view of the situation in the whole country, their judgment being affected by purely local events. From the Mexican capital come reports that have turned every engagement into a
federal victory, and so far the administration has heard absolutely nothing through the press reports from the constitutionalist side of the case.

This has led to an intimation that information of a reliable character
from that source would be welcomed
by the administration.

Would Extend Sec. Bryan's Proposed Protectorate to Cover All Canal Territory

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 21.—Now that Secretary Bryan's proposal for a virtual protectorate over Nicaragua has become public, state department officials are expecting inquiries from the European powers respecting its details. Most of the diplomatic representations at the summer embassies
and legations in the north, consequently no views from that quarter
are available.

The suggestion however, that the
plan be extended to cover all the territory near the Panama canal zone,
has aroused the keenest interest in Latin-American circles with some hints of opposition. Salvador recently made some objections to the Nicaraguan treaty in its original form
and Costa Rica more recently objected to certain provisions relating to the proposed canal route, but the latter
were based solely upon a claim for consideration in connection with the use of San Juan which Costa Rica
claims as her territory.

Europe's interest, however, is chiefly in the investments of her citizens
in enterprises and securities of Latin-America. An association representing those interests has recently been supported by the British, French and very recently Great Britain made a naval demonstration against Guatemala to force payment of interest on bonds. The object of the European representatives will be to see that provisions for guaranteeing its obligations are made in any treaty such as that proposed with Nicaragua.

Secretary Bryan will confer on the project with the senate foreign relations committee next Saturday. His plan is said to have the support of President Wilson.

Assistant Secretary of States Barnes'
recent visit to San Domingo and Haiti
has brought up the suggestion that the system of American supervision
of customs which has been in force for some time in Santo Domingo, might be extended to Haiti, if that republic
is responsive to overtures.

sources, however, and the United States would be given the right to intervene with troops at any time to insure Nicaraguan independence or
to protect life and property.

Nicaragua would agree to make no
foreign treaties that would threaten her independence and the United States would pay Nicaragua $3,000,000
for an exclusive right to build a canal
route and for a naval base on Ponseea.

The proposed control by the United States over the financial operations
of Nicaragua is virtually an enforcement of the Monroe Doctrine in advance, said one member of the senate
foreign relations committee today.
Senator Hitchcock, Sutherland, Smith,
O'Gorman and Stone expressed approval of the general principles of the proposal.

Chairman Bacon of the foreign relations committee who was strongly opposed to the original Nicaraguan treaty said he believed the new proposal by Secretary Bryan greatly changed the situation and entitled the treaty "to the most careful consideration."

The proposed treaty will be attacked in some quarters on the ground
that it would put a moral obligation
on the United States to see that Nicaragua quiescent and pay her old
debts even though the treaty does not
make this country directly responsible for them.

Whatever the actual result may be,
the underlying purpose of the administration in framing the agreement
with Nicaragua was to secure the concession for a canal route and the extension of the Platt amendment was merely an incident in the minds of the negotiators. This will be developed in the course of a conference between the President and the White House correspondents today.

This is not dollar diplomacy; it is good sense," said Senator Lodge in general support of the plan.

Senator Borah, also a member of the foreign relations committee attacked the policy of the plan. "This means the going up of the American flag all the way to the Panama canal,"
he declared in a statement. "It is the beginning of that policy whose irre-
futable logic is control and ownership
by the United States from here to the Panama canal. It is not exactly in accord with either the conceptions of those who formed the Republic or
own present professions of what it ought to be."

ACTOR SUICIDES AT COLORADO SPRINGS

(Associated Press Telegram)

derbilt actor of St. Louis, Mo., committed suicide yesterday by cutting his throat. He was in poor health.

Calumet Place, Secretary Bryan's Washington Home;
Rental $4,000 a Year Out of His Salary of $12,000

Can William J. Bryan, commoner,
maintain his Jeffersonian simplicity
as secretary of state on $12,000 a year? Such is the question which is agitating official and unofficial Washington and interesting the rest of the country. Can he entertain diplomats on the $8,000 a year left?

Most of those familiar with Washington life do not believe an ordinary secretary of state could do
it. The bill for wines alone consumed by the foreigners would, it
is declared, reach a minimum of $2,500 a year. But Mr. Bryan furnishes grape juice in his home.
Calumet Place is owned by Mrs.
John A. Logan.
At the outset there was discussion
in Washington as to whether Secretary Bryan would seek to keep up
social reputation of his predecessors. For the first three months
Mr. Bryan resided at a large hotel,
and meanwhile looked around for a residence suitable for the requirements of the secretary of state. It was only a short time ago that he leased Calumet Place, a large, comfortable mansion, not in a fashionable section but sufficiently well located.

The house is adapted to entertaining and is regarded as a bargain at $1,000 a year, which included the extensive furnishings. That it would be possible to maintain Calumet Place properly on the $8,000
a year left after paying the rent is conceded in some quarters.

PLAYGROUND IMPROVEMENTS BEING MADE

Numerous Attractions For the Boys and Girls—Hike to Buckeye Lake Wednesday.

Every day the playgrounds of the city grow in popularity and some new entertainment for the amusement of the hundreds of humanity who congregate at the fields is planned by those in charge.

Weekly hikes, contests and camping parties seem to be always in store for the boys and girls who use the grounds. Two tennis courts are now nearing completion and the same number of volleyball and basketball courts are being added.

Seventy-five girls were counted Friday in the water at one time and many more were in the water throughout the afternoon. These girls were receiving instruction in the art of swimming from Miss Gladys Beecher and C. U. Keckly.

The playground attendants. The girls range from 12 to 18 years of age and the number that are fast becoming expert swimmers is surprising and a credit to the efforts of the instructors. Hours for the girls to swim have been set from 2 till 4 o'clock on Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays. The rest of the time is reserved for the boys with the exception of Sunday when the playground is closed.

Probably the greatest attraction of the season for the youth of the city is the big hike of the boys and the girls to Buckeye Lake. They will be chaperoned by Miss Gladys Beecher and L. W. Siegrist. At 6:30 on Wednesday morning all the participants will leave on the march for the lake accompanied by a wagon which will be used in case any of the hikers become unable to complete the march by foot. Forty-five or fifty will be the population of the party on this excursion from the present outlook and all must come with lunch for one meal and at the minimum 25 cents to defray expenses. The party will spend the night in tents. One large tent to accommodate all of the girls will be pitched and the boys will sleep in the small dog tents ensnared especially for the occasion. After spending the night at the lake the party will leave at 6:30 the next morning.

The Hefsey playground in the East Side has all the apparatus of the same description of the White Field but the grounds are more limited and no nearby stream affords the opportunity for aquatic sports. At present Miss Blaisdell by her genius in the line of carpenter work has interested the children in the construction of a miniature play house and Prof. L. W. Millisor is very busy with the "kids."

Buttons are being distributed to those who register 12 times at the playgrounds and the attendants are trying to keep a record of all the little folks who play at the grounds.

At present there are five tents pitched at White Field and about ten boys are sleeping out at night. In the near future Mr. Siegrist will take the boys on a hike to bound the entire city which will consume an entire day. Miss Beecher is planning a hike for the girls to Camp Killcare, the summer home of the Y. W. C. A., which is situated between Newark and Hebron.

Sixteen men are now employed on the running track and it will be completed in less than three weeks. The high iron fences are up and the playground is completely enclosed except where it is bounded by the creek. Other recent additions to the grounds at the White Field are the sanitary drinking fountains and the automatic telephone, number 3230.

Picnic parties every day come to the grounds which are everyday becoming more popular. The street car company has recently conceded to stop their cars at the gate of the grounds and this makes it more convenient for the visitors.

STATEMENT GIVEN TO WAR COMRADES

EIGHTY-THREE YEAR OLD VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR TELLS OF BEING CURED OF KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLE.

United Doctors Receive High Praise For the Cure Accomplished.

Age brings with it, as a rule, many physical ailments, the most common of which are kidney and bladder troubles. Mr. Adam Stine, of 81 Courthouse, Dayton, Ohio, is responsible for the statement that practically every old soldier is a sufferer from one or both of the above afflictions, and states further:

"Nearly every old soldier I know is afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble as I have been, and it is my desire to let my war comrades know of my cure of these troubles and where they too may obtain relief."

"For several years past I have tried every kind of a remedy to make me well, but all to no avail, for none of them helped me beyond a few days at the most. It was suggested that I go to the United Doctors for treatment and this I finally did."

"Previous to taking their treatment I did not know what a good night's sleep was, for the condition of my bladder was such that I had to arise ten or twelve times nightly, and my pains were constant from my kidneys."

"I am now offering this public statement unsolicited in any way to say that I go to bed now, sleeping from 9 p. m. to 5 a. m. without arising once and I rest perfectly. My comrades will no doubt welcome this statement and I only hope that they will avail themselves of what seems to me to be a sure cure for them."

The United Doctors treat among other ailments chronic and deep-seated diseases of the nerves, blood, heart, liver, kidneys, bladder, spine, including rheumatism, paralysis, gall stones, colitis, indigestion, constipation, neuralgia, eczema, scrofula, dropsy, asthma, deafness, catarrh, rectal troubles, weak lungs, and diseases of women and diseases of men.

The Columbus Institute of the United Doctors is located on the second floor at 37 North Third street (just north of Broad street) and opposite the Virginia hotel.

NEWARK GOLFERS VS. CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge golfers will compete with the local team of the Mountbaldwin Country club in a tournament that will be held next Thursday. In the absence of the Captain Daniel Manning, W. A. Dorsey will act as captain of the team. This is the first time this season that Cambridge will be encountered by the local players.

Today in Fugilistic Annals.

1819 Dan Donnelly defeated Tom Oliver in 26 rounds, 1 hour and 10 minutes, at Crawley, Hurst, England. This battle between Irishman and Englishman attracted tremendous attention and the nobility and gentry of both countries were well represented at the ring side. It is said that over a half a million dollars was wagered in the bout. Donnelly was one of the greatest of Irish pugilists, and the scene of his memorable fight with George Cooper, the English champion, is still pointed out to all visitors to county Kildare.

1909 Sam Langford knocked out John Willie in 20 rounds at New York.

Swedes to Honor Indian Jim Thorpe, the World's Champion Athlete

Advices received from Sweden indicate that Jim Thorpe, the great all-around athlete, who is now a member of Manager McGraw's party of National League champions, will yet come into the possession of a Swedish Olympic trophy. A few weeks ago, on the day that King Gustav V. presented the Decathlon trophy, that Thorpe was obliged to relinquish, to Weislander, its rightful winner, the Swedish papers came forward with the suggestion that sportsmen throughout Sweden should contribute to a fund for the purpose of sending Thorpe a consolation trophy as a reminder of his great victories at Stockholm a year ago.

The suggestion "took" instantly with sportsmen in Sweden and the scheme to give the American Indian a consolation prize is now favored by one of the very biggest men in Swedish amateur sports. If the carrying out of the desire of the Swedes meets with no disfavor on the part of the American Olympic committee Thorpe will get a handsome trophy from the northmen within a few weeks.

STATISTICS PROVE GROWTH OF "MOVIES"

8,380,000,000 Nickels Spent Annually in America.

New York.—Chairman Frank A. Tichenor of the first international exhibition of the moving picture arts has completed tabulating moving picture statistics, which show that 8,380,000,000 nickels are paid yearly by 3,600,000,000 persons who love the "movie" shows.

The figures, which are the first official ones ever prepared in this country, are expected to create considerable interest not alone among moving picture men, but the public at large. The figures show that $319,000,000 was received in quarters, dimes and nickels, that $80,000,000 is invested in the industry, that more than 200,000 persons are employed and that 10,000,000 feet of picture films are produced weekly.

The statistics show a decrease in saloon licenses in some of the smaller cities, which is attributed to the wage earners' money going to the "movies." Instead of "the poor man's club," the statistics will be illustrated by a moving picture called "The Shrinking Demijohn." In which a monster demijohn is made by means of trick photography to decrease in size, while at the same time a moving picture theater grows from a toy size to normal proportions.

C. M. A. DEFEATED SUNDAY BY FAST MT. VERNON TEAM

After winning seven straight games the C. M. A. club was defeated yesterday afternoon by the Mt. Vernon Moose by a 5 to 2 score.

Two southpaws were doing the mound duty, Taylor having for the better of the argument. Noblicks, who started the C. M. A., was hit hard, but managed to get out of a few bad holes by fast fielding.

The C. M. A. scored one in the first on a walk to Wiley, a steal of second, went to third on Brown's sacrifice fly and scored on Nutter's single; then in the second after one was out got on through an error, stole second and scored on Crawford's double, this ending the scoring for the C. M. A. Mt. Vernon could do nothing until the sixth, after Iger had flied to Keck, Porter singled, Popojoy tripled scoring Porter, Sapp doubled scoring Popojoy; he later scored on an overthrow. In the seventh Pugh got a life on Brown's error, was forced to second by Taylor. Taylor went to second on a fielder's choice and scored on a single by Porter. COMPANY G. BOYS LEFT FOR CAMP SUNDAY MORNING

Members of Company G left at 8:10 o'clock Sunday morning for the shooting camp at Camp Perry. The boys have been in preparation for this event for the last month and much stress has been laid upon the rifle practice as the local boys wish to seize their share of the honors when best shots are selected from those assembled at the camp to compete in the national tournament which will be held later in the season.

Probably the greatest attraction is the Perry Centennial at Put-in-Bay in which the company from Newark will take part for two days. Captain Priest and all the officers were on hand when the train left and the company is recruited to its full strength of 55 privates. From all indications this should be the company's most successful year and the captain says the boys are shooting better than ever.

Senator Smoots Delivers Vigorous Attack on the Underwood Tariff Bill

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, July 21.—Asserting that a "foreign lobby" had influenced the Democrats in the framing of the Underwood-Simmons tariff, Senator Smoot, Republican member of the finance committee today delivered a vigorous attack on the measure. He painted a picture of mills shut down, workmen unemployed, investors ruined and an era of general financial and industrial depression as the result of the leveling of tariff walls. European nations, he declared, were not so much to be feared as competitors as are the nations of the Orient.

"There has been a lobby here in behalf of foreign manufacturers," he charged, "such as was never before witnessed in history of the nation, and they have got even more than they have asked for. The Italian chamber of commerce of New York asked for certain reductions and the Democrats in nearly every case have given them more than they asked."

The senator assailed the increase in the free list, especially with reference to sugar, wool, pig iron and textiles. He charged that the sugar industry of Hawaii and Porto Rico would be ruined with consequent benefits to the so-called "sugar trust" and that China, with its great steel plants, would capture the steel business of the western hemisphere.

Referring to the Walker tariff bill of 1850 on which he contended the present bill was largely modeled, Mr. Smoot said the Walker law provided for the admission free of only about nine per cent of imports while the Underwood-Simmons measure allows fifty per cent of the greatly increased volume of incoming trade to enter untaxed. The Walker law, he added, the average rate of duty on all imports was 23.16, while under the proposed new law the rate would be merely a trifle over eighteen per cent.

"All the world knows how this country suffered as a result of the Wilson tariff law in 1896," he continued, "but the average rate of duty now is over two per cent, lower than was the case under the last Democratic tariff when the business of the nation was paralyzed and 3,000,000 persons thrown out of employment."

Senator Smoot charged the Democrats with inconsistency in the framing of the measure. Calling attention to the fact that wheat, flour, corn and cornmeal, potatoes and virtually every form of meats go on the free list certain food products peculiar to the south, remained under a tariff tax.

First Things

The arrival of the first steamship of the Cunard Line, the Britannia, was publicly celebrated in Boston seventy-three years ago today, July 21, 1840. The Britannia was a wooden side-wheeler, and made her maiden voyage across the Atlantic, from Liverpool to Boston in fourteen days and four hours. For a time the Cunarders made Halifax and Boston their American ports, but later New York was made the principal terminus of the line. Sir Samuel Cunard, founder of the line, was a native of Halifax, N. S., and built the Britannia and three similar vessels to carry out a contract with the British government for transporting the mails between England and America. In 1862 the company began to substitute iron screw vessels for the wooden craft with paddle-wheels in use up to that time. The record passage of the Atlantic is now held by the Britannia's giant successor, the Cunard Mauretania, which made the voyage from Queenstown to New York in four days, ten hours and forty-one minutes. The Mauretania and her sister ship, the Lusitania, will soon be surpassed in size and probably in speed by the Aquitania, now building, which has a length of 885 and 50,000 gross tonnage. The Britannia was not the first steam vessel from Europe to enter Boston harbor, the Unicorn having preceded her by about a month.

Uncle Walt's Philosophy

The Gas Meter.

Old Ananias did his best, and died with fluency and ease. He died along and took no rest till he was wobbly in the knees. He did his utmost, but alas! his best was but a thing to mock; the small machine that measures gas could beat the old man by a block. Minchhausen lied with grace and skill, considering his handicaps; he started out the truth to kill, and mangled it a bit, perhaps; but he is dead and gone to grass, his fame a thing of rags and rents; the small machine that measures gas has made him look like twenty cents. And all our human liars fade and to the wall their faces turn, contrasted with the trap that's made to measure gas the people burn. It has no conscience and no soul, it does not fear a judgment day, no hell or heaven is its goal, so recklessly it lies away. It lies when mortal liars sleep, worn out by lying in the mart; it lies when human liars weep because they've no more lies by heart. All other liars tell the truth once in a while, just for a change; but such a weakness is, forsooth, outside, beyond the meter's range. The human liar sometimes sighs because he's weary of the game, but wretchedly the meter lies, exulting in its deeds of shame.

The Human Procession

Mrs. Thomas Joseph Preston, wife of a college professor and widow of Grover Cleveland, will begin her fifth year today. The charming woman who once presided over the White House menage was born in Buffalo, July 21, 1854, the daughter of Oscar and Emma Harmon Folsom. Her father was a lawyer and for a time was the partner of Grover Cleveland. Frances Folsom was educated at Wells college, Aurora, N. Y., and before she graduated in 1885 it began to be whispered about that she would soon become the bride of President Cleveland. While the latter was Governor of New York, he sent many huge boxes of flowers to the lovely Wells student, and this pleasant custom continued after he had become President. These gifts occasioned a tremendous amount of college gossip, some of Miss Folsom's associates maintaining that the President's attentions were serious, while others, perhaps smitten with envy, insisted that they were simply intended as marks of respect from an old friend of Miss Folsom's father. It was not until a few days before the wedding, which took place in the White House on June 2, 1886, that any definite announcement was given to the press of the impending nuptials. The bride returned from Europe only a week before she became the "first lady of the republic." She was then only twenty-one, and her youth and beauty captured the world.

Prof. Preston was a student at Princeton when he first met Miss Folsom. After the death of Grover Cleveland, they met again, as the President's widow was a trustee of her alma mater, Wells college, and Prof. Preston a member of the faculty of that institution. The old friendship ripened into love, and the President's widow became the professor's wife a few months ago. Although one year short of the half-century mark, Mrs. Preston appears much younger. She is intensely proud of her children, and during the period of her widowhood spent some years in Switzerland in order to take advantage of the educational facilities of that country.

Tom Mason, who has been literary editor of Life for a score of years, and who is a contributor of humorous stories to all the magazines in the English language, will celebrate his forty-seventh birthday today. He is a native of Essex, Conn., and was educated in New Haven. "Aside from his literary work and responsibilities in putting the paper together," writes one of his editorial associates, "he is a founder and president of clubs, school boards, municipal improvements, a political organizer and general disturber of the peace. Besides being a professional philosopher and an expounder of such things as Kant and Schopenhauer, he is an authority on education, dogs, hens and hygiene. As a systematizer, he is in a class by himself. Compared with Maasson, the Prussian army, as an organization, is a happy-go-lucky, chaotic rabble." Mr. Maasson was one of the organizers and first president of that famous organization known as the Dutch Treat club. He is now Dowager King of the club, which has also voted to give him the privilege of going out of the Life office any time he wants to without first raising his hand and asking for permission to leave the room.

Summer Archibald Cunningham, publisher of the "Confederate Veteran" at Nashville, Tenn., was born seventy years ago today. During the war he upheld the cause of the South, and was for a time a prisoner at Camp Morton, near Indianapolis. Mr. Cunningham led the movement which recently resulted in the unveiling of a memorial to Col. Richard D. Owen, commandant of Camp Morton, whose kindness and courtesy to his prisoners won their affection and esteem.

AUGUST CENTURY NEWS NOTES.

Eleanor Hallowell Abbott, author of "Molly Make-Believe," has written a new novel which she has named "The White Linen Nurse." The Century will publish the story in three large installments, with pictures by Herman Pfeler. The first chapters will come in the August Century.

Theodore Dreiser, the frank and unconventional author of "Sister Carrie" and "Jennie Gerhardt," made his first tour of Europe at the age of forty, visiting England, France, Italy and Holland, and jotting down his impressions as he went. As viewed through his naively sophisticated personality, London, Paris and Monte Carlo appear in a new light; odd types of people are sketched from life, and adventures at different levels of society are described in realistic detail. Some of Mr. Dreiser's experiences in early issues of The Century, the installment in the August number dealing with "The First Voyage Over."

VICTORY IN SIGHT FOR THE GOVERNOR

Confidence grows daily regarding the size and significance of the victory in store for Governor Cox in his fight against the fraudulent referendum on the workmen's compensation law.

Should the referendum actually get before the people it would be overwhelmingly defeated at the fall election.

But sufficient frauds in the circulation of the petitions have been uncovered to warrant the secretary of state to turn down the whole proposition and not submit it to the people at all. It is very doubtful, too, whether, after the signatures shall have been analyzed, the required number has been honestly obtained and can be verified beyond the shadow of doubt or suspicion. It is truly the most colossal fraud ever attempted in this or any other state and shows the extent to which some people will go in their zeal to accomplish a selfish purpose.

If the referendum on the workmen's compensation law shall be had, every man in Ohio who works with his hands—who earns bread by the sweat of his brow—must certainly see where his duty lies and how his vote should be cast. To vote against the referendum will simply be performing a duty which he owes to himself and to those who are near and dear to him and who depend upon the fruits of his daily toil for their existence. A workmen's compensation law is the boon for which the toiler has hoped and prayed for years, and now, that the very thing so vital to his welfare is being attacked by the special interests, it is not very probable that he will be found sleeping at the switch. The very enactment of the compensation law by the legislature came after a struggle of many years, and it would seem to be nothing more than natural that the workman should want to hold onto that which he has gained. To do otherwise would be entirely foreign to human nature and prejudicial to his own welfare and the welfare of those he loves.

But the good name of the state, for which Governor Cox is making his gallant fight, is menaced by the fraud of wholesale forgery to the referendum petitions, and the whole rotten lot of them should be thrown out by the Secretary of State.

Make the Governor's victory absolute by nipping the fraud in the bud, so that no such wholesale crookedness will ever be attempted again in our State.

OUR CITY'S GUESTS.

Delegates to the annual convention of the American Flint Glass Workers' Union have departed for their homes after two weeks spent in Newark. It should be a matter of pride to Newark citizens that such an organization saw fit to sojourn here for that length of time. Particularly acceptable are the compliments paid local officials and committeemen in resolutions of appreciation adopted before the convention finally adjourned.

It is a matter of note on all sides that the cause of labor could never hope to reach its aspirations through a more dignified representation than

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, July 21.—[Special.]—After the Gettysburg reunion of the blue and the gray there was some talk about pensioning the soldiers of the Confederacy, but no one believed that it would go very far. Yet about the same time there was introduced in the house bills for such pensions. Congressmen Edwards of Georgia would pay every Confederate a pension of $30, also the same amount to the widows of soldiers.

Congressman Hobson of Alabama proposes that the government shall equalize pensions—that is, where states pay pensions the federal government shall pay to the Confederate soldier an amount to make his pension equal to that received by the Union soldier in the same circumstances.

Not Likely to Pass.

It is to be doubted whether the men introducing these bills expect them to pass. They probably want discussion throughout the country to see how the suggestion takes. It may be that they hope these bills will be the forerunner of future legislation. And it may be that they rather expect that such bills may help them politically in their states. At all events it can do them no harm. In time to come it is possible that pensions for Confederate soldiers will be granted as the last act of cementing the north and the south.

Rural Carriers Come Again.

Rural letter carriers started at $400 a year. They now receive $1,100 and bills have been introduced to increase the amount to $1,200 and even $1,500. The rural carriers keep coming back for more pay, and they have been of so much help to the congressmen as well as to the rural communities that they are likely to get further increases.

Meaning of Words.

Interpretation of words and language came in for discussion in the senate one day when a bill was considered which provided for a bureau to draft bills for congress. Senator Chamberlain of Oregon suggested that if such a bureau was created it might draft treaties with foreign countries which could be understood.

Senator Bacon in reply said that even the inspired book, which should have been the most accurate ever written, had given rise to more controversy as to what it meant than any book ever written, and if anything should be correct it was the Bible.

Senator Mark Smith of Arizona remarked that the greatest lawyers had drawn wills with the utmost care, and yet they had been interpreted to mean something different from what it was known the testator desired.

The Fundamental Law.

The senators might have enumerated a fraction of the thousands of cases which have been brought before the supreme court to test what was the meaning of the language in the fundamental law of the land, and yet no in-

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Stopping Nosebleed.

There are two little arteries which supply the whole face with blood, one on each side. These branch off from the main arteries on each side of the windpipe and, running up toward the eyes, pass over the outside of the jawbone, about two-thirds of the way back from the chin to the angle of the jaw, under the ear. Now, suppose your nose bleeds by the right nostril, with the end of the forefinger feel along the outer edge of the right jaw until you feel the beating of the artery directly under your finger, the same as the pulse in your wrist; then press the finger hard upon it, thus getting the little fellow in a tight place between your finger and the jawbone.

The result will be that not a drop of blood goes into that side of the face, while the pressure continues; hence the nose instantly stops bleeding for want of blood to flow, and the ruptured vessels in the nose probably by that time will contract, so that when you let the blood into them they will not bleed. Bleeding from a cut or wound anywhere about the face may be stopped in the same way.

RETURNS FROM FOUR MONTHS'
TOUR ABROAD

After a four months' trip of Europe, Dr. C. H. Stimson and wife arrived in Newark Sunday from New York, having reached port safely, after a pleasant return voyage on the S. S. George Washington.

During their sojourn abroad Dr. and Mrs. Stimson visited the chief points of interest and principal cities of Germany, England, France, Holland, Italy, Austria and Switzerland. Their trip through the Italian lakes and Swiss Alps was particularly interesting, said the doctor Monday.

Dr. Stimson spent much of his time in Germany attending surgical clinics in the celebrated hospitals of Berlin, and while there witnessed some of the tests of the Friedmann serum for the tuberculous. This the German authorities have discredited because they contend it is not a cure for tuberculosis and because of the grave danger connected with its administration. In Berne, Switzerland, Dr. Stimson had the pleasure of several audiences with the great Kocher, largely regarded as the greatest surgeon in the world.

The return trip was made in eight days, owing to heavy fog and a delay of two days occasioned by the annual train of great icebergs in the path of North Atlantic steamers. Otherwise, the sea was quiet and offered a pleasant journey. Dr. Stimson was enthusiastic with his delight at being back in Newark.

WIFE MURDERER TAKES POISON IN CINCINNATI JAIL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM.)

Cincinnati, July 21.—George Mundy, the attorney, who shot and killed his wife here several weeks ago, attempted to commit suicide by poisoning himself today in the county jail. He took either mercury tablets or morphine tablets, but which poison it is will not be known until the tablets found on the man have been analyzed. The prisoner says they are of morphine; the physician believes they are made of mercury. He told Sheriff Cooper that he had intended to kill himself the day he was arrested, but until Monday he could not get up enough nerve to take the poison.

Questions and Answers

Was Castro, the former Venezuelan president, entertained by President (then president elect) Wilson and Governor Sulzer of New York during his recent short stay in the country?

He was entertained at dinner by Governor Sulzer, but Mr. Wilson as governor of New Jersey refused to see him on the ground that he did not care to mix in any of the affairs of the Taft administration before his inauguration as president.

If the earth is nearer the sun in winter than in summer, why is it colder in winter, or when we are nearest the sun, than in summer, when we are farther away from the sun?

The earth is nearer the sun when it is winter in the northern hemisphere, but it is summer at that time in the southern hemisphere. The distance of the earth from the sun is not what produces the change of seasons, but the angle at which the sun's rays strike the earth. In winter the sun, even at noon, never rises very high in the sky, while in summer it is almost directly overhead. So the sun's rays are scattered over a much larger area of the earth's surface in winter than in summer, and though the surface is nearer the sun in winter, this is not sufficient to compensate for the much larger area that must be heated by the same amount of sunshine.

A safe way to have your coin valued would be to make an impression of both sides of the coin on white paper with the unsharpened end of a pencil and send it to a coin dealer.

BRIDGE FALLS;
GIRL IS KILLED
IN GUERNSEY CO.

Cambridge, O., July 21.—Jennie Wilson, aged 8, is dead and her sister, Helen 10, is in a serious condition from injuries received when a bridge in Washington township collapsed under the weight of a load of lumber, according to information received here today. The two children were riding on a load of lumber in company with their father, when the bridge gave way throwing them into 10 feet of water. The father escaped injury but the children were first caught under the lumber and then carried downstream by the swift current.

The bodies of the dead girl and her sister were taken ashore two miles downstream. The physician today expressed doubt regarding the recovery of Helen.

Even when they move in the best circles some people are always trying to square themselves.

It is only as an afterthought that some people realize they have been too previous.

Lima, July 21.—No longer will Lima women be permitted to stroll the city streets attired in silhouetted and slit skirts, gowns, and transparent dresses, also have received by Police Chief Earnest, following the arrest of Miss Mary Lindsay, aged 25, for indecent exposure.

Miss Lindsay appeared in a dress, the skirt of which was slit as high as the knee, and her underwear stockings were not concealed by a petticoat, according to the police charge.

FEATURES SKIRT STORY
SENT FROM NEWARK

Printing the story in a border and with conspicuous heading at the top of column on the first page, July 15th, the Los Angeles, Calif. Times says:

Newark, (C.) July 14.—(Exchange Dispatch)—The new skirt was placed on trial here today for the first time so far as known. And the slit was found guilty and its wearer fined $5.

Mrs. M. Livingston of Cleveland was the defendant in Mrs. Livingston's case, promoting Sunday evening. She received much attention. A policeman finally became one of the spectators. After deliberating a few minutes, he decided that the slit was too deep and Mrs. Livingston was arrested.

A Newark man in California sends a marked copy of the Los Angeles paper to the Advocate with this comment:

"I am enclosing herewith a clipping from our principal paper which appeared on the front page of first section. It seems that Newark must stay in the line light. Tell that officer to come to Los Angeles, it will keep him guessing which woman to arrest first, and he will lose a great many while taking them to the station. The style is disgusting but I think the least said about it the better. Woman's modesty will correct this fault very soon."

OVERHEARD on OLYMPUS
by Barbara Boyd

Matrimony and Resignation

IRIS, the dandy, was chattering in her bright way with Aristotle. The great philosopher liked to relax once in a while; and nothing on Olympus gave him such a complete change from the serious thoughts that usually absorbed him, as the gay prattle of this witty some goddess of the rainbow.

"One thing that always has puzzled me," she said, as she caught a glimpse of Cupid and Hymen crossing a distant glade, "is the way marriage affects mortals. When a woman is first married, she looks upon her husband as a blessing straight from heaven; and some times she wonders how it is that such rare good fortune has come her way. But after a while, she comes to regard him as one of those mysterious dispensations of providence that have to be endured; and she searches her soul to discover why she has been singled out by misfortune for such a blow. Now why should such a change come over the matrimonial sky?"

Aristotle pondered a bit. He hoped Iris wasn't getting the habit of serious conversation. It would take away all her charm. If he wanted to talk seriously, he preferred Plato or Seneca or somebody who made it worth while to use his time that way. Iris might scintillate, but she never could be serious. At best, it would be but a poor imitation. He sighed as he wondered if he was in for a session with a would-be high brow.

"I suppose it is because girls have such chaotic ideas about marriage," he replied. "They never consider the brass tacks of it, until the knot is tied."

"Brass tacks are not particularly interesting to contemplate," murmured Iris.

"No, but since they are a large part of the wedding outfit, it is just as well to study them. But the real root of the trouble is that girls are in love with love, instead of the man they are to marry. They have a beautiful faith that it is some mysterious force that will work wonders. They think it will transform a lazy man into a marvel of industry; that it will make a bad-tempered man into a peace plenipotentiary; that it will put more pleasure into cooking and washing dishes and nursing babies than into dancing and dining and golf. All this and a lot more of the same brand, they believe with the ardor of an ancient crusader marching to rescue Jerusalem from the hands of the infidel. And then when they find after marriage that dish-washing 's the same old soap-and-water performance, and that bad temper is just as explosive and sultry, and that the world is wagging on at the same old jog-trot, only perhaps giving them a few more jolts, what is there for them to do but be resigned?"

Aristotle didn't often make as long a speech as this, unless he was talking to students, and he sighed, thinking of the good sense he was wasting.

"When you think life is going to be different from what it ever has been, it must be awful to see your hopes gradually fading."

"Something like seeing you slipping away, when I want to talk to you," said Aristotle, gazing admiringly upon her radiant beauty.

"But you can always see me, if you get at the right angle. I wonder now," she mused, "if marriage would't always be bright and lovely if the right viewpoint were kept?"

"But, my dear," replied Aristotle, "we can't see you unless the sun is shining. And that is where the trouble starts; when a woman begins to take her marriage with resignation, the sun goes under. But I must be going."

He rose and strolled onward, hoping Iris would not take to moralizing. "She'll lose all that bright charm of hers if she does," he thought. "Why won't a woman stick to the best expression of her individuality, instead of switching off into something that doesn't belong to her. Now Iris is bright and sparkling; and as such, is a decided addition to life. But if she switches over into the moralizing, reforming-the-world sort, she'll be a flat failure. I think I'll make my next philosophic treatise along this line." And unconscious that Iris had, after all, given him a real thought, he went on, hoping he would run across a congenial spirit and discuss the idea.

"Galley West."

The phrase "he knocked everything galley west" is credited to the United States by Webster's Dictionary. It has really a far wider extent, and there is no reason to credit it to this or any other solid land. It had its beginning in sailor English essentially a migratory dialect of extent as wide as the unending sea. Galley west or in its full form, galley west and crooked, means hazy, hazy, all in confusion. It has the same sense of disordered direction as appears in other locations in sailor English, such as "Paddy's hurrine—straight up and down the mist"—and "Tox Cox's traverse—twice around the scuttle butt and once around the mast"—St. Louis Times.

Cook In Small Vessels.

Meats of all kinds, unless intended for soup, should be cooked in small vessels. To put a small roast in a large pan is wasteful as there is rapid loss by evaporation, and a large proportion is dried too much. A stew in too large a kettle will require more water to cover than should be used.—Exchange.

Couldn't Lose Him.

"I refused my husband more than a dozen times before he finally persuaded me to be his."

"How did he get you at last?"

"Why, you see, he got an offer to go to another city and had made up his mind to accept it."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Woe To You Rich;" Blessed Ye Poor"

The Philosophy of These, the Master's Words, Is Shown
by Pastor Russell.

Are the Woes and the Blessings Present or Future?—God Is Very Rich. Many of God's Servants in the Past Were Rich—Why Classify at All? Why Contrast Rich and Poor?—What Blessings Have the Poor?—Riches of Wealth, Riches of Honor, Riches of Education, Do These All Bring Woes? Poverty of Education and Earthly Goods and Earthly Fame, Do These All Insure Blessings?

Asheville, N. C., July 20.—A large number of the members of the INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS ASSOCIATION are here, with students of all ages attending, and giving every evidence of growth in grace and knowledge. The program calls for four discourses daily for eight days. Amongst the speakers are some noted Bible students. Pastor Russell was one of the speakers of today. We report his address, from the text, "Woe unto you that are rich; for ye have received your consolation. . . . And He lifted up His eyes on His disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor; for yours is the Kingdom of God."—Luke 6:24, 20.

Think not, my dear brethren, said the Pastor, that my address is intended to stir up class animosity. The tribulations and disappointments of life come, not through heeding the Divine Message, but through neglecting it. Although not rich myself, I can sympathize with the rich in their position, as well as with the poor in theirs. God, Himself very rich, is able to sympathize with both the poor and the rich; so is the Savior, who, being rich, for our sakes became poor, that we through His poverty might become rich in the truest sense of that word.

Some of God's faithful servants in the past were very rich—Abraham, for instance. Nevertheless, the Lord forewarned us that not many rich, great, learned, or mighty would receive the highest blessing promised during this Age. On the contrary, recipients of the greatest favor will be chiefly the poor of this world, rich in faith. These will be heirs of the Kingdom.

The Master evidently intended to include riches of every kind—learning, influence, honor of men, etc., as well as financial wealth. This view broadens the text to signify that all who now possess great privileges and blessings above the average of mankind will, by these blessings, be more or less hindered from obtaining the best things of God's favor, and more or less subject to woes.

We are not to take the views of the darker days, and to suppose that the Master meant that the rich at death would be thrown into everlasting torture. The woes of the Bible, on the contrary, apply to the present life. The rich, the influential, the learned, the great, addressed by the Master in the words of our text, were living in the close of the Jewish Age, but realized it not. And we might have no occasion whatever to apply our text today, but might consider it as already fulfilled in the past, except for the fact that the Jewish nation and its experiences at that time typified the Gospel Church and the experiences of Christendom in our day.

Woe to the Uttermost Upon the Jews.

St. Paul, referring to the same woes which Jesus predicted, told living near the close of the Jewish Age, when the woes were being poured out, declared, "Woe shall come upon this people to the uttermost—that all things written in the Law and the Prophets concerning them should be fulfilled. (1 Thessalonians 2:16.) If all the woes purposed of God upon the Israelites in the conclusion of their Age were fulfilled, as St. Paul declares, then none of those woes belong to the future.

That woes and tribulations are associated with the present life for both the rich and the poor is undebatable. All acknowledge these woes. But the most terrible forebodings are associated with imaginary woes of the future life—quite contrary to the Scripture teachings. If we present speak of tribulations in the present life, in order to be faithful to our commission, we are glad to be able to set aside and nullify the nightmare of the Dark Ages respecting eternal torment for any.

The Jews, whom Jesus addressed, He declared "knew not the time of their visitation." They realized not that they were living in the end of their Age, and that a great settlement of matters was about to take place. Similarly, we are now living in the end of this Gospel Age—another great settlement day in the Divine arrangement. The intellectually, politically, socially and financially rich at that time, addressed by our Lord, were very self-satisfied, very prosperous, and looked for the Messianic Kingdom in an opposite direction from that which Jesus taught. So today, the intellectual and rich in various ways are satisfied as never before, and merely wishing that nothing might disturb their wonderful progress for the future, and these are looking for their blessings and prosperity in a direction the reverse of that indicated by the Word of God.

Jesus prophetically foreknew and foretold the crisis of the Jewish nation. His Message gathered out of that nation the "Israelites indeed, in whom was no guile." Then the nation was given over to itself. The Divine Hand which had guided it safely in the past let go the rudder; and human passion accomplished the wreck in the anarchy which overthrew the nation in A. D. 70. Similarly, we may understand that now has come the Harvest of this Gospel Age; that now God is gathering His Elect; and that as soon as this work shall have been accomplished, the Almighty's Hand which has held in check the powers of human passion until now, will release its hold.

Then mankind, left to themselves, will reach their present civilization. As the work of Jesus' day suffered most keenly in their time of trouble, so the rich will suffer most keenly in the time of trouble now near. Thank God, however, that these woes, both upon the Jews and upon Christendom today, are not woes of eternal torment!

Compensations in Nature.
Who has not been struck with Nature's compensations? The rich, the learned, the favored, have trials and difficulties, perplexities, cares, doubts and fears, which the poor, the unlearned, know nothing about. The clerk, the mechanic and the laborer may finish their toil under certain hours and be care free, while the employer often faces perplexing problems which hinder sleep and undermine health.

In matters of grace the same rule to some extent prevails. The rich have more on which to set their hearts, more to occupy their time, more to cultivate self-will, more opportunity for self-gratification, more riches for which to be responsible, more education by which, under present conditions, errors are more likely to be gained than truth. The rich in influence have more to divert them and to cultivate their pride. The naturally noble, contrasting themselves with their inferior neighbors, are inclined to resent the idea that they are sinners, and as much dependent upon the Lord's grace as the humblest and the meanest of their fellows.

No Partiality With God.

We are not to understand that God is partial to the poor, the mean, the illiterate, the ignoble. The Scriptures assure us that God is impartial. All other conditions being equal, riches make the possessors more esteemed in God's sight. But other conditions are not equal. During this Age God is choosing a special class. He puts faith first, then meekness, gentleness, patience, brotherly kindness and love, in their order.

Apparently the life experiences of the poor and ignoble are as favorable, or more so, than the conditions of the rich and the talented. All of their experiences tend to develop faith, while those of the rich tend rather to develop self-reliance, self-assurance. The experiences of the poor and ignorant tend to develop meekness, teachableness, whereas the experiences of the learned tend naturally toward self-conceit. The experiences of the great in dealing with subordinates tend to beget arrogance and self-assurance; whereas if they become disciples of Christ, those qualities are serious handicaps and interferences. Thus we see why not many rich, wise, great and noble are amongst those upon whom the Gospel Message takes serious effect. Not only have the poor many advantages in respect to hearing and obtaining the Gospel Message; but their being more numerous than the rich would be another reason why they would predominate among the Lord's elect class.

Not All Poor Are Blessed.

Our text, however, does not refer to poor people in general, but to a special class of poor. "Blessed be ye poor; for yours is the Kingdom of God." Some poor, instead of being drawn to God by their poverty, cultivate a spirit of anger, malice, hatred, strife, and are thus not only embittered in spirit, but have their faces turned in the opposite direction from the one in which God's blessings come. Alas, how true this is today!

The class described by Jesus as "ye poor" is composed of those who are hungering after righteousness, and who have approached the Fountain of Blessing, the Almighty, and have been received as children of God. The poor include all of God's people, whether or not poor as respects earthly goods, earthly honor, fame, etc. Whatever earthly blessings they may have had, they gave up, sacrificed, that they might thereby become heirs of God, joint-heirs with Jesus Christ. Of the Redeemer it is written, "He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor." As the Master made a full surrender of His will and talents, and all, so also must all who, hearing the Master's voice, become His disciples, or footstep followers.—2 Cor. 8:9; Matt. 16:24. This does not mean that the Lord's people must of necessity throw away or give away their property and become penniless. It does mean, however, that whatever property they once called their own, by the terms of their consecration became the Lord's property, and they merely His stewards in the administration of that property and the use of it in harmony with the Lord's will.

Neither does this mean that, if they had riches of learning, they must ignore their knowledge, and speak and act ignorantly. It means, however, that their learning is no longer theirs, but the Lord's. It is no longer to be used for self-gratification, self-honor, self-praise, but to be used in the service of their Redeemer, to show forth His praises, no matter how unpopular His cause in the sight of men—no matter how foolish it may cause them to appear in the eyes of those who are blind to the Lord's arrangements.

This poverty and sacrifice does not mean the giving up of noble sentiments and high ideals; but it means the bringing of these ideals, etc., into the Lord's service, for the support and advancement of His Message of Truth, for the blessing of mankind along the lines which His Word indicates.

This sacrifice, or surrender, does not mean that honor or men will be disesteemed thereafter; for it will always be true that "a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." It means that worldly reputation will be held secondary to the Lord, the Truth, and service to the Lord's cause, so that whatever honor or men they may possess will be turned as wisely and as prudently as possible into the channels which will glorify the Lord and honor His Message, regardless of the fact that so using it will gradually consume it; for the world knows not the followers of Jesus, even as it knew Him not, and appreciates not the true honor which cometh from above, but merely the honor which is of men.

Worldly Wisdom Vs. Heavenly Wisdom.

The Scriptures distinctly point out that there are two kinds of wisdom, radically opposed to each other—the earthly wisdom and the Heavenly Wisdom. The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God, and the wisdom of God is foolishness with this world. This means that there are two different ways of viewing nearly everything. The world's viewpoint ignores the future beyond the grave, lives for the present, thinks for the present, strives for the present. The Heavenly Wisdom looks chiefly beyond the grave, for that eternal condition which God declares may be attained by all obedient to Him. From this viewpoint the things of the present are temporary, transitory, flicker, uncertain. In comparison with the future blessings St. Paul declares of these that they are not worthy to be compared with the future glory to be revealed in the Lord's people.—Romans 8:18.

Those who follow the earthly wisdom are subject to the frailties and imperfections of the human mind with which they were born—in sin, misshapen in inquiry. "In sin did my mother conceive me." More than this, they are to a large degree susceptible to the evil influence of Satan and the fallen angels, and the "doctrines of demons" with which these seek to ensnare and mislead all who have not put themselves under Divine protection by becoming disciples of Jesus. This includes of whom the Apostle declares that the gods of this world have blinded the minds of all those who believe not, lest the glorious light of God's goodness, shining in the face of Jesus Christ, should shine into their hearts.—2 Corinthians 4:4.

Of these again the Scriptures declare, "The whole world lieth in the Wicked One." Not intentionally, through depravity and deception, they are servants of sin. Their only hope lies in the

How to Build Up or Tear Down This Community

BY J. O. LEWIS

The Strength of the Wheel.

THE wheel, composed of hub, spokes and tire, is one of the most useful and one of the strongest of man's mechanical devices. It also illustrates well the manner in which various parts are needed to make a perfect whole. A GOOD TOWN, A CENTER OF TRADE, RESEMBLES A WHEEL. With all of its contributing factors closely wedged in like the spokes into the hub of a wheel the prosperous country surrounding it holds it together like the tire holds the wheel.

So long as all parts are in the place the device runs smoothly and is a perfect machine. Remove a spoke and THE WHEEL AT ONCE BECOMES WEAKER and is no stronger than its weakest point.

TO HAVE AND TO MAINTAIN A GOOD SOLID TOWN EVERY KIND OF BUSINESS MUST BE FIRMLY ESTABLISHED, AND AROUND THESE MUST BE UNITED PEOPLE WORKING FOR THE COMMON GOOD.

Destroy the mercantile business or the manufacturing business, you weaken the banking business and, like removing a spoke from the wheel, you weaken the interests of the whole.

Send your money to mail order houses or patronize merchants in other cities and you take away that patronage which rightfully belongs to the home merchant and thereby undermine the business of the town. All classes or kinds of business are so closely related and interlocking that when you damage one you damage all.

But we have a beautiful little city, prosperous, growing and happy, and in it we have some of the best merchants, banks, mills, jobbers and factories, conducted by as fine a set of men as you will find anywhere on earth. We have fine schools, handsome churches, excellent public utilities and many fine buildings the equal of any city of its size in the entire country, and ALL MADE POSSIBLE BY THE BUSINESS MEN—big hearted, progressive and aggressive hustlers and boosters.

There is hardly a day that the business men—merchants, banks, jobbers, mills, etc.—are not called on to make a subscription or donation to some institution or some worthy cause—to do something, if you please, for greater building or better living. And that they generously give and have given is proved in the many institutions we have for the intellectual, moral and the spiritual uplift of our citizens. Therefore, when you solicit a subscription from these business men of your home city you should feel in duty bound to give them what assistance you can and to always patronize them to the exclusion of others and outsiders.

THE VALUE OF YOUR HOME, THE RENTAL OF YOUR PROPERTY, THE PRICE OF LOTS—ALL ARE BASED ON THE SUCCESS OF YOUR BUSINESS MEN.

If the town has a lot of vacant stores, idle factories, mills running on half time, there can be no substantial value to property. Therefore, to keep the stores rented, the dwellings occupied and a general good tone to property values it is necessary that you GIVE TO YOUR HOME PEOPLE YOUR ENTIRE SUPPORT.

Patronizing mail order houses is not altogether limited to poor people or to farmers or to people who do not know the hurt they are doing the home town, but is a common practice among certain well known, well to do men. I believe this is more the result of thoughtlessness and of being misled by embellished and highly exaggerated descriptions than through a spirit of antagonism to the home merchant. Moreover, I firmly believe that when you think over this matter seriously and carefully, analyzing it in every detail, that hereafter YOU WILL GIVE YOUR HOME MERCHANT YOUR TRADE.

LOOK YOUNGER! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR WITH SAGE TEA

Says Sage and Sulphur Will Stop Falling Hair and Cure Dandruff.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, then left to age and carefully filtered will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggy and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy.

Some druggists make a lot of muss. It isn't nearly so nice as "Wyeth's." While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can tell because it does it so naturally; so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight and by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, after another application or two it will be restored to its natural color and be even more glossy, soft and luxuriant than ever. Local druggists say they are selling lots of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and it surely helps folks appear years younger. Hall's Drug Store, 20 North Side Square, Agent. (Advertisement)

Out comes the corn. The left smooth—not a mark left. Use only Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, recommended by druggists and sold in the bottles by W. A. Brannan.

Is President Mellen of the New Haven
the Goat for J. P. Morgan & Co.?

This is the latest photo of Charles H. Mellen, deposed president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, which has been attacked by almost every public agency like state railroad commissions and the Interstate Commerce commission, and generally denounced by the public. The road is burdened with debt, its equipment is run down, and accidents are frequent. All of which is said to be due to the fact that the energies of its officials have been centered on the building of a complete, trolley, water, and rail monopoly in New England rather than the operation of a railroad. J. P. Morgan & Co., have long controlled the road. They have supplied the huge sums Mellen used in extending the monopoly. Many persons believe he took this course, because directed to do so by the bankers, and that now that the policy has proved a colossal failure and a sacrifice is demanded by the public, Morgan & Co. slipped the blame over their shoulders to those of Mr. Mellen.

MR. GIBBS SUES TRACTION COMPANY AT CAMBRIDGE

W. A. Gibbs, former superintendent of the Newark street railway and former general manager of the N. M. P. & T. Plaintiffs in their petition say that they were the owners of the stock of the N. M. P. & T. Co., prior to January 15, 1913; that on December 27, 1912, they entered into a written contract to deliver said stock of the N. M. P. & T. ARE CANDIDATES FOR LIQUOR TAX COMMISSIONERS

Local politicians are manifesting considerable interest over the appointment of liquor license commissioners scheduled to come off the second Monday of next month, according to provisions of the new license law.

A number of possible candidates for the county appointments have been mentioned in political circles and several are doubtless receptive candidates.

The first Monday of next month is the time set for appointment of the three members of the state license commission, for terms of two, four and six years, respectively. This board is then empowered to make the county appointments.

Two commissioners are to be appointed in each county, their compensation to be fixed by the state board, but not to exceed $5,000 per annum. The county board may appoint a clerk and fix his compensation, all subject, however, to approval of the state board.

Among the Democratic candidates mentioned in the local field are Wm. E. Miller, Elmer Orr, E. J. Maurath, James J. Hill, C. W. Miller, E. A. Gilbert, J. F. Ryan and W. A. Archer. Republican and Progressive: Ernest Johnson, Earl Murphy, S. H. Beadle, Ray Martin, Frank Cherry, Smith L. Redman, F. S. Scott, Art Morris and Dr. J. N. Wright.

The county board is to consist of members of opposite politics.

PLANNING FOR HANDSOME COURT ON HULL GROUNDS

Workmen are to start activities in the early fall on an elaborate scheme for beautifying and preserving as a whole the grounds adjoining the beautiful West Main street residence of Eli Hull. The project already determined upon by Hull, is in accord with civic group ideas carried out successfully in Detroit, Cleveland and Toledo, and will cost many thousands of dollars.

The group will face upon a beautiful grassy and shaded mall to be known known as Hull Court, in the center of which will be situated the present Hull residence. Architectural designs prepared by Architect O. J. Hawkins and approved by Mr. Hull, provides for eighteen separate and roomy building lots. General specifications for structures to be erected on these lots will be reserved by Mr. Hull, while ultimate owners will have the privilege of specifying interior finishing.

Under the present plans, the improvement will be made at an expenditure of several thousand dollars, the bulk of which will represent a direct outlay by Mr. Hull, invested simply to prevent breaking up of the grounds and speculation with the immediately adjoining real estate.

The lots facing on the courts will have their rear on Linden and Neal avenues. Provisions made by Mr. Hull are that all houses along the court shall be set on an even line, both front and rear. In architectural design they are to be arranged so that the rear will be quite as slightly as the front, as in other cities where this group plan is in vogue, thus doing away with any objection from residents of the two adjoining avenues.

Houses to be built in the court are to be of the most modern type of architecture and equipped with every late device for convenience and sanitation.

The court will be heavily wooded. At present the ground is shaded by forty-seven huge forest trees, and the construction of the houses surrounding the mall has been planned to such a nicety that only two of these trees will be removed.

To the rear of the building sites in the north end of the mall will be a number of smaller lots, each of which is a garage building site for each of the 18 buildings.

Entrance to the court will be by way of broad cement walks, ornamented on either side by lawns, flower beds and shrubbery, and also by a double entrance 16-foot cement driveway from Neal avenue and leading down the entire center length of the court.

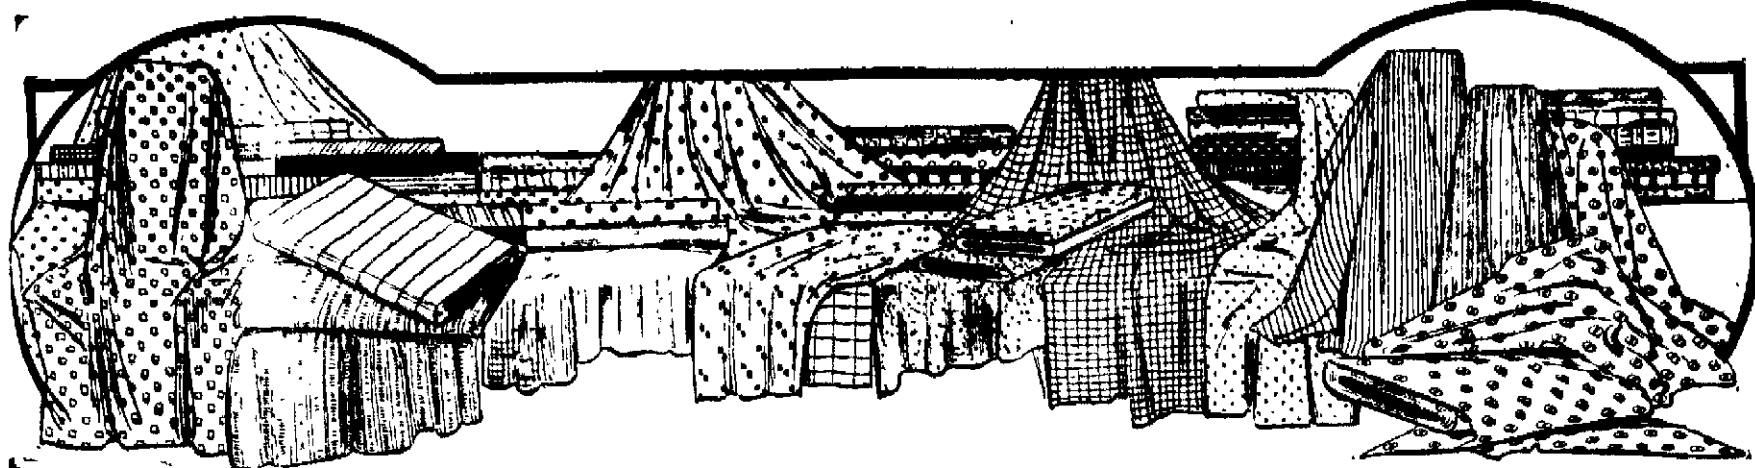

The West Main street front, and the driveway entrance from Neal avenue, will be a broad, artistic lawn with flower beds and plants.

Designing and landscape gardening will be started in the early fall, but will experience a lull during building operations which will be directed by Mr. Hull and individual lot owners, after which it will be finished into what promises to be one of the most attractive spots in Newark.

Mr. Hull has just returned from a tour of several of the larger cities in which the private court or group plan has been adopted quite extensively, and he declares it his object to follow out the idea in the hope of preserving his hitherto in an original and attractive way.

Frauds Discovered In Warnes and Kilpatrick Referendum Petition

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, O., July 21.—Prosecutor Locher of Cuyahoga county, has taken Charles S. Gongwer of the Equity association, at his word when he said the Equity would do all in its power to send men to the penitentiary who might be found to have prepared fraudulent petitions for it in the Green law referendum matter, and he conferred with Gongwer regarding the matter at Cleveland.

Gongwer confided to the prosecutor that the Equity association had been scrutinizing the petitions that had come in for referendum votes on the Warnes and Kilpatrick laws, and was astounded at the frauds that appeared in them. He had rejected 40 petitions that were evidently fraudulent, which his petition circulators had brought to him.

"Even if we fail to have enough signatures and are unable to have filed referendum petitions within the time limit on the Warnes and Kilpatrick laws, we don't propose to have a single fraudulent petition, if we can help it."

In these words Gongwer promises to throw open to the prosecutor all the information in his hands that may be used in the prosecution of the fraudulent operators, and at the same time intimates the possible failure of all the referendum movements.

WANT THE NAMES STRICKEN FROM THE PETITIONS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, O., July 21.—Because the investigation and developments thus far have shown that many of the names on the petitions for a referendum on the Green Act are not bona fide, the secretary of state is receiving letters containing requests from many of those who did sign the petitions asking that their names be withdrawn, if possible. Affidavits accompany these letters stating that they signed under a misunderstanding.

One of these affidavits was received today from Ed. L. Parker of Mount Vernon, a member of the board of review of that place.

Officials of the American Federation of Labor called at the office of the secretary of state yesterday and made an examination of the petitions to determine whether in their opinion they were bona fide. When they left they expressed the belief that none of the petitions would stand.

A force of men was at work today carefully examining the petitions filed from Franklin County.

Assistant Secretary of State Re-crest today reiterated former statements from that department that in opinion all of the petitions would have to be thrown out. Official action is not expected to come for some time yet since the Secretary of State does not have to pass on the petitions until forty days before the November election.

Meantime officials of the attorney general's department are continuing their work of investigation in various parts of the state where the petitions were "circulated" and collecting evidence which they say will result in more arrests. It was said today that several arrests are expected to be made during the week.

At a special meeting of the executive committee of the Ohio Federation of Labor held here today, a resolution was adopted calling upon every labor organization in the state to co-operate in the investigation and exposure of the referendum frauds and in the prosecution of those responsible for them. Labor is also urged to unite "in repelling the attack that has been made in the initiative and referendum."

The meeting of the committee was presided over by John A. Voll, president of the state body.

ANOTHER ARREST IN FRAUD CASE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, O., July 21.—The second arrest in Cleveland was made this morning in the state-wide campaign instituted by Governor James M. Cox who charges wholesale frauds in connection with the circulation of petitions calling for a referendum election on the Green compulsory workmen's compensation law. W. A. Clifford, 2326 East 34th street, was held charged with perjury in connection with obtaining names for a referendum petition.

PARENTS ALLOW CHILDREN TO HEAR INDECENT TALK

"The morbid curiosity of some people is beyond understanding," remarked a police officer Monday, referring to the arrest of May Burke on the square Sunday evening.

While the officers had the woman in custody, her language was vile and indecent but his did not deter dozens of people who packed closely about, when the arrival of patrol wagon was awaited.

"Parents in bugles and automobiles with their children, packed so closely around the place that it was necessary for officers to order them to drive on and allow the patrol to approach the call box. These buggies had dozens of children in them and they listened to the profane and indecent language too vile for the ears of children so young."

The woman was arrested by Patrolmen Stewart and Hurbaugh. She fought, bit and scratched in her efforts to resist arrest, continually applying the vilest epithets to the officers. In police court she drew a fine of $5 and costs and was sent to the county jail.

EAGLES' OX ROAST AT BEACH ISLAND ATTENDED BY 600

Six hundred members and their friends of Licking Aerie No. 357, Fraternal Order of Eagles, enjoyed an ox roast at Beach Island, Buckeye Lake, Sunday and the affair was pronounced a huge success. John Keifer of Columbus, former Newark man, had charge of the culinary department and he made a great hit with his bouillon and goulash. These two features of the menu instantly became popular with those who partook of the "cats."

Besides the hundreds of Newark Eagles, there were a number of visiting brothers from Zanesville, Columbus and other nearby towns.

FILES SUIT AGAINST CITY FOR DAMAGES

Hancock Street Resident Claims Sewer Was Overloaded and Caused Him Trouble.

Charging that city officials are responsible for loss of his garden vegetables, damage to his property, household furnishings and for the illness of his wife as the result of an overflow from the 24-inch sewer in Hancock Street, Lois P. Heaton filed suit in common pleas court Monday for $965 damages.

The petitioner alleges that the city knowingly caused additional laterals to be tapped into the sewer in question when it was known to be inadequate to carry off the water. He says that on August 18 the storm water backed up, flooded his garden, entered the house and caused carpets and rugs to become mouldy, thereby contributing to the serious illness of his wife.

"LITTLE DROPS OF WATER," BUT THEY WERE DIRTY ONES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Hammond, Ind., July 21.—Drops of dirty water splattered about Mayor John D. Smalley as he sat in a Colosseum restaurant here last night. Upon investigation the mayor found Mrs. Frank Orick mopping the floor of the apartment above. She informed him that scrubbing was a part of a campaign of several members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to oust the restaurant with its mechanical piano and a saloon next door. She asserted she bored holes in the floors of her rooms and that she mopped them every night. She said that thirty members of the temperance organization would assist her in going over the floors tonight.

PROTECTION

In the West and South there have been many storms this year which have carried with them a great loss of life as well as a great property loss. In Ohio there was an immense loss of life and property loss as a result of the floods. The savings of a lifetime, in some families, were swept away with a single stroke; yet, none of these calamities have affected to the extent of a single cent the value of insurance—either the death indemnity or the present asset represented by the cash or the borrowing capacity of the contract—carried in such a Company as the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark, New Jersey, whose Sixty-ninth Annual Statement appears in another column of this issue. Life Insurance is a far-reaching protection.

The Mutual Benefit, which is one of the oldest and best insurance companies, offers Endowment contracts at Life rates, giving, in addition to protection for the family, protection to old age, and, further, these contracts have values all during their terms, representing the greatest part of the payments made.

There would be a fortune in it for any inventor who could patent a device for making both ends meet.

It takes most of all our lives to discover that if two evils it isn't absolutely necessary to choose either.
